Heartland Asphalt has made several donations to community service projects.

THE MASON CITY YOUTH BASEBALL COMPLEX

consists of six diamonds spread over five city blocks. It is a great facility for the hundreds of kids who participate, but the haphazard parking arrangements were a concern.

Heartland Asphalt, Inc., stepped forward to donate not only adequate paved parking, but pathways from the parking lots to the diamonds. The work began in May, 2000 and was completed in time for the summer invitational tournament on June 20. Once the paving was in, Heartland striped the parking lot and as a result doubled the parking capacity.

The value of Heartland Asphalt's donation was approximately $50,000.

"Paving the lot and getting rid of the dust has really improved the complex," says Bob McKinnes, a board member. "We are very appreciative of Heartland's contribution."

"...Heartland did a fantastic job. This is the best thing that ever happened for our program ..."
